Dedication

In appreciation of his unceasing efforts in planning, advising, and administering unselfishly for the benefit of the schools and the students of Somerset, the Class of 1967 sincerely dedicates the thirtieth edition of Memoirs to Mr. Edward L. Sullivan, our Director of Guidance.

In some way, every student who passes through Somerest High benefits from Mr. Sullivan's efforts to assist in and promote the attainment of the academic and vocational pursuits of each.

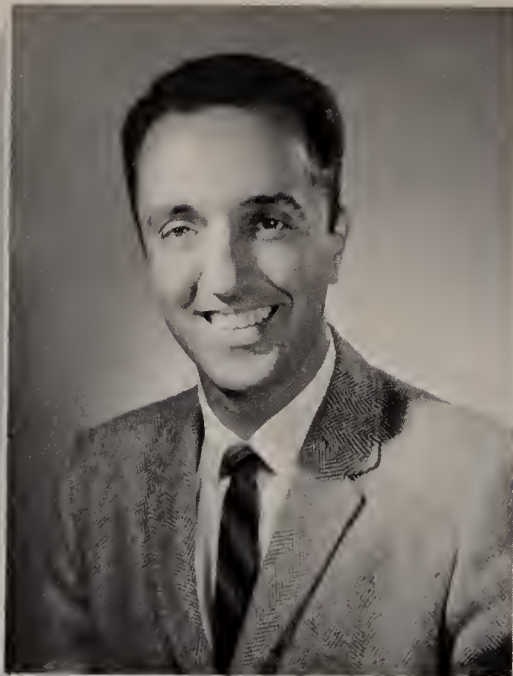

His desire to foster an appetite for learning and to instill an appreciation of knowledge in all students, in accordance with their respective goals, is reflected in his consistent efforts to provide an effective summer session schedule. Therefore, it is with sincere pride that we dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Sullivan.

Life Has Loveliness to Sell . . .

Life has loveliness to sell—
All beautiful and splendid things,
Blue waves whitened on a cliff,
Climbing fire that sways and sings,
And children's faces looking up
Holding wonder like a cup.

Life has loveliness to sell—
Music like a curve of gold,
Scent of pine trees in the rain,
Eyes that love you, arms that hold,
And for your spirit's still delight,
Holy thoughts that star the night.

Spend all you have for loveliness,
Buy it and never count the cost,
For one white singing hour of peace,
Count many a year of strife well lost,
And for a breath of ecstasy
Give all you have been or could be.

Foreword

Through the wonders of photography, we have tried to capture and record the most intrinsic part of S.H.S.—its people—in hopes of conveying to all who read our book a complete picture of life at Somerset High. We hope that Memoirs XXX will present a true picture of what a yearbook should be—an annual that focuses not only on the graduating seniors, but also on the underclassmen, the faculty, and the special events and activities which are so basic to a living school body.

The Memoirs staff hopes that while leafing through these pages at some future date, you will be reminded of some of the best years of your life and of the people who made them so.

Varsity Action

Captain Jeff Casey and Coach Sullivan

The team compiled a favorable 11 win—7 loss record while competing in a ten team Narry Baseball League.

Although faced with many unexpected problems, the young Raider team showed initiative, sportsmanship, and spirit as Coach Sullivan led them to a third place tie in a tight Narry pennant race.

With many of the starting nine returning and with the return of a good pitching staff, the '67 Raiders are sure to make their presence felt as pennant contenders.

The Somerset High School golf team completed its first year of varsity competition in June. The Raiders competed in the Bristol Scholastic Golf League's western division, which is comprised from the area's larger schools.

Coach Sandomierski guided the team to a successful 3-7-2 record against more experienced teams. It was a happy first season for the team and the coach.

Girls in Sports '66

The undefeated girls' softball team completed the 1966 season with an impressive 8-0 record. The champions, who boast an average of about 13 runs per game, took command of the league and held the number one position throughout the season. Miss Corcoran, the coach, and Captain Peg Hunt led the team to success. Supporting the team in key positions were Pam Driscoll, Sandy Curt, Pat Cyr, and Pat DeMarco.

The 1966 volleyball team, led by co-captains Kathy Lennon and Kathy Goodwin, finished the season in the runnerup position in the league. Again, Coach Corcoran guided the team to a strong record of 9-2.

Track Action

Coach White and sprinters.

The track squad broke even with a 3-3 meet record this season. With Mr. White as coach, Jerry Fletcher, John Soares, and Bill Kaylor were tri-captains for a season that was highlighted by the breaking of two school track records. Jerry Fletcher pole vaulted 12 feet to establish a new school record. In the shot put, John Soares bettered the old shot put mark by tossing 44 feet 6 inches.

Highly productive pointwise, many juniors helped make this a successful year. Charlie Santerre and John Pettine throwing the javelin, Bill Dionne in shot put and Jack Thornton and Moe DeCotret in sprinting and high jump were all high scorers. With these athletes as its backbone, the 1967 team should compile another fine record.

The Happiest Days of Your Life!

Under the direction of Mr. Ward, the Dramatic Club presented a three act comedy, "The Happiest Days of Your Life", on March 25, 1966.

In error, orders from the Ministry of Devacuation state that a boys' and girls' school are to occupy the same premises. Neither school is aware that the other student body is of the opposite sex. The result is nothing but mass confusion and chaos—a truly delightful, comic situation.

Lucille Hamel and Wayne Bardsley executed commendable performances, and of course, Bruce McFarland was superb with his non-chalance. The entire cast supplied an enjoyable evening of theater with all proceeds benefiting the Citizen's Scholarship Fund.

Spring Concert

Under the direction of music supervisor, Paul Gayzagian and Miss Nathalie Hezelton, director of Girls' Glee, the music organizations presented their annual spring concert.

The program began with an orchestra selection of Mozart, Divertimento, K.270. The male chorus selections included 'The Wiffenpouf Song' and 'There Is Nothing Like a Dame'. The old time, sentimental songs, 'One Hand, One Heart' and 'Goodnight My Someone', were presented by Girls' Glee. The mixed chorus concluded the program with 'You'll Never Walk Alone' and selections from 'The Sound of Music'.

This was an especially meaningful concert for everyone present because it was the last to be presented under the direction of Mr. Gayzagian. After sixteen years of dedicated service in the Somerset schools, he reluctantly left the community in which he had gained so many friends to accept a greater professional challenge at Lowell State College.

Senior Banquet

The Senior Class of 1966 held their banquet at White's on June 8, 1966, with Class President Thomas Paine acting as toastmaster. The Memoirs co-editors Marsha Belcher and Joy Vandgrift read the class will and announced the dedication of Memoirs '66 to a very surprised and happy Mr. Charles P. Leary. A special dedication of the first supplement of the school was announced at this time. It was dedicated to Mr. Paul Gayzagian, Director of Music at the Somerset Schools.

Graduation '66

On June fifteenth, commencement exercises for the graduating class of 1966 were held in the Memorial Gym. After the entrance march to Pomp and Circumstance, the seniors and the audience were seated and the invocation was delivered by Rev. Alden Burhoe. The two senior speakers were Sarah Grusmark and Joy Vandgrift.

Dr. Paul van K. Thomson, Vice-President of Providence College, was the guest speaker of the evening. He addressed the audience on "The Responsibilities of Citizenship". Despite the humidity, the program ran smoothly, quickly, and pleasantly.

1966 Junior-Senior Prom

On June 17, 1966, the junior-senior prom, "I Could Have Danced All Night", was held in the gaily decorated Memorial Gymnasium. Through the combined efforts of Mr. White, art supervisor, and the co-chairmen of the prom, Kathy Doyle and Edie Katon, the gym was transformed into a beautiful London street scene, complete with park, sparkling pools of water, and quaint little shops.

The evening was filled with dancing to the music of Al Rainone's orchestra, but the highlight of the evening was the selection of the queen. After some suspenseful moments, the judges selected Terry Irla to reign as "Queen of the Prom", and they selected Valerie Martin and Susan Joynt to serve as her court maidens.

1966 Football

Coach Sullivan and Captains Agrella and Pettine

On Thanksgiving Day 1966, the Somerset Blue Raiders highlighted an 8 win—1 loss record by tipping traditional rival Case of Swansea 14 to 12. This ended a season which gave the Raiders the first championship of the new Narry Football League with a 4-0 slate.

This excellent season performance was led by the senior squad members. A good running and passing game balanced a powerful high scoring offense with a tough defensive unit that was very stingy in giving up points and yardage to any opponents.

During practice sessions as well as on game days, the seniors' spirit and teamwork influenced the group as a whole and made it what it was, a true championship team.

Case Rally

Never before was the spirit of the annual Case Rally as high as it was this year. Seniors, juniors, and sophomores went all out to plan their skits and to decorate the gymnasium. If ever there was a year that made the judges cringe at the thought of having to make a final decision, this was it. But, judges will be judges, and points will be points. And according to the way the points came out, it was the juniors who won with their sensational Charlie Brown skit. Somehow, it seemed a crime to take down the excellent decorations after their being on display for less than an hour, but the rally was over and it was the game which lay ahead that had to be the first concern of everyone. Incidentally, we won the game!

The Annual Battle

On Thanksgiving Day of 1966, the Somerset Blue Raiders and the Case Cardinals of Swansea met to decide two important questions: Would Somerset be the Narry League champions, and would Somerset be able to beat Case for the fifth consecutive year?

In what was one of the most exciting and one of the closest games of the season for both squads, the favored Raiders came out on top with a 14 to 12 margin. This win gave Somerset undisputed possession of first place as the first champions of the new Narry Football League. It also marked the fifth successive year that Somerset came away from the annual game with the 49'ers trophy, the symbol of supremacy in the long standing rivalry between Case and Somerset. Coming away with the trophy was an especially happy event for the Raiders because it climaxed a season of 8 wins and only 1 loss.

The Champs '66

The girls' field hockey team of '66 had one of the most successful seasons in the history of field hockey at Somerset High. Miss Corcoran's Raiderettes were invincible as proved by their 8-0 sweep of the Bristol County Girls' League.

The three-year veteran co-captains, Pat DeMarco and Sandy Curt, ran the team from their center back and center forward control positions. Backing up the whole team was the other three-year veteran, Tina Iadicola, whose dependable and never-flinching agility in the goal cage saved many a game for the team.

The defense was sparked by Pam Driscoll who was always on hand to make that all important save. Of course, Sue Joynt was somewhat the unsung hero of the team. She was always steady in her performance on the forward line and proved herself as one of the most dependable players on the team.

These five seniors proudly left the team with the knowledge that they had accomplished the highest goal—the undefeated championship season.

Cross Country '66

Highlighted by a 30-27 victory over Durfee High of Fall River, the 1966 cross-country squad, directed by Coach Richard Bernardo, had a rather unimpressive slate record-wise but were excellent team-wise in gaining a great deal of the ingredient needed most by an athlete—experience.

A bright future is seen because the team was comprised entirely of underclassmen. With these "veterans" returning in the coming seasons, Somerset High can be assured of a place of prominence in the league.

- I, Dana Adams, leave to Somerset High my long hair and my boots.
- I, William Agrella, leave to Mr. Souza his motto, "Be tough! Have perseverance and you shall succeed."
- I, Eileen Alexander, leave Somerset High School to any poor soul who hasn't got any place else to go.
- I, Geraldine Arruda, leave my great Portuguese vocabulary to anyone who wants it.
- I, Richard Ashworth, leave my "A" in algebra to Mr. Kelly.
- I, Marie Aubin, leave Mr. Alden's black plan book to his future classes.
- We, Beth Barlow and Judy Roberts leave Mr. Barrar's P.O.D. class quietly.
- I, Judy Barrowclough, leave to Miss Mullin a new F.T.A. helper.
- I, Madeleine Bazinet, leave my large books to anyone strong enough to carry them.
- I, Norm Belanger, leave a dozen different lockers that I had during the year.
- I, George Belcher, leave to the future seniors my parking place, small as it may be.
- I, Joseph Benedict, leave to Mr. Leary his pseudo science."
- I, Morgan Biastoff, leave.
- I, Gerald Bienvenue, leave to all frustrated comedians, a notebook full of corny jokes."
- I, Angelo Borges, leave all my butts in the boy's basement and leave all my skid marks out on the parking lot."
- I, George Boule, leave to Mr. Chauvette his darn old chemistry notes—I couldn't understand them anyway."
- I, Diane Boyer, leave to Mr. Methot a responding French class.
- I, Laurie Brisbon, leave to future physics students, my knowledge of what a "B" field isn't.
- We, Chris, Sue, and Dee, leave the senior football bus empty.
- I, Thomas Cabral, leave to the Guidance Department my ultra-high College Boards.
- I, Kathy Camara, leave my position with Mr. Tavares to any future F.T.A. member with enough ambition to put in 150 hours of typing.
- I, Dawn Carbonneau, being of feeble mind, leave to Mr. McDonald all my unused arguments.
- I, Roland Chagnon, leave a bushel of illegal quahogs to the school administration.
- I, Randall Chung, leave to a collector of odd things, the teacher.
- I, Pam Ciosek, leave to Mr. Leary my high marks.
- We, Valerie Martin and Christine Clement, leave to Mr. Corcoran a book of Andy Panda jokes to read between classes.
- I, Michael Conroy, leave to Somerset High School the pleasure of knowing me.
- I, Eileen Correia, leave my many happy discussions about Rhode Island to Mr. McManus.

- I, Carol Costa, leave to Miss Worton the best of luck with her future sewing classes.
- I, Denise Coulombe, leave those big? delicious? cafeteria meals to anyone who is famished.
- I, Alverda Crivaro, leave to the school all my books.
- I, Sandy Curt, leave with a hop, skip, and a jump.
- I, Linwood Cyr, am not leaving this school with the feeling of really being missed!
- I, Pat Cyr, leave the chemistry lab faucets to any unsuspecting student who doesn't mind getting wet.
- I, Richard Dagwan, leave behind the best years of my life.
- I, Glenn Davis, leave all my old paintings to Mr. White.
- We, Sharon Horvitz and Linda Davis, leave to some unfortunate junior our chemistry lab equipment, unbroken or otherwise.
- I, Stephen Davis, leave to Mr. Pontes all the participle, infinitive, and gerund phrases he can handle.
- I, Kerry Dean, leave to Mr. Sullivan the whirlpools and heat packs for a worthy pitcher with a sore arm.
- I, Paul DeLong, leave to Miss Nenna many years of teaching success.
- I, Pat DeMarco, leave Siberia to any talkative math student who has Mr. McDonald.
- I, Jackie Diogo, leave to Mr. Malloy my weights.
- I, Bill Dionne, leave to the classes of the future all of my unused books.
- I, Connie Dobson, leave the remembrance of being in the class I am in right now.
- I, John K. Donnelly, will leave the teachers of S.H.S. with peace of mind.
- I, Pam Driscoll, leave to Mr. Methot a slightly unused French dictionary.
- I, Nancy Farias, leave to the students at Somerset High a cousin teacher, Bob Souza.
- I, Linda Ferreira, leave the memory of my confiscated ride in John's confiscated Stingray.
- I, Carl Finney, leave to the corridors of Somerset High School the peace and serenity that should have been there for the past four years.
- I, Leo Fluet, leave to Mr. Mahoney a water pump for his car.
- I, Arthur George Folster Jr. leave to Mr. Chauvette, my cigarette lighter.
- I, Pat Furtado, leave Miss Mason all my transcripts.
- I, Frank Furze, leave a used cross to anyone who wishes to bear it through Somerset High School for six years.
- I, Joanne Ganem, leave Miss Worton with a turkey to cook.
- I, Paul Garipey, leave to Mr. Methot the charred remains of a French II book."
- I, Christine Gauthier, leave to Miss Arruda a Barbra Streisand picture, and to Mr. McManus a new Flamingo step.
- I, Dennis Giacobbe, leave Mr. Leary peace and quiet.
- I, Priscilla Gingras, leave to any student going with a guy (girl) from Durfee, Durfee book covers.
- I, Milton Glickman, leave to John K. Donnelly, my mod belt.
- I, Glenda Gossic, leave to Miss Arruda my 100 page English notebook.
- I, Lou-Ann Gwozd, leave Somerset High with a fond farewell.
- I, Priscilla Hagerman, leave Mr. Barrar with 1000 reasons as to why I was late to study.
- I, Sue Halpin, leave. Isn't that enough?
- I, Sue Hayes, leave four years older, but many more years wiser.
- I, George Hill, leave to Mr. Kaylor my long hair and to Mr. Sullivan my good looks.
- I, Gail Hilliard, leave my brother to all of the fortunate teachers who should happen to have him next year.
- I, Mike Hoole, leave the Case Rally to any future rabble—rouser with a loud voice.

I, Sharon Jermyn, leave to Mr. Pelletier one slightly used scrabble set.

I, Jane Johnson, leave numerous broken guitar strings to the Folk Music Club.

I, Sue Joynt, leave to a sophomore, or junior girl in the fun, hardwork, and above all, the unique experience of being the only girl in Male Chorus.

I, Anne Kadlubkiewicz, leave my teachers to attempt this name again on two more to come . . .

I, Edie Katon, leave to next year's head cheerleader blue hands and an exciting year.

I, David Kaufman, leave my soggy desert boots to Mr. Pontes, for posterity's sake.

I, Jeffery Keith, leave to Mr. Green all my Green Hornet bumper stickers.

I, Wayne King, leave to the class and school my last car which is only slightly used.

I, John Kinnane, Jr., leave my V.W., G.T. Porche powered."

I, Richard Lapointe, leave my name on every book and desk I've used since the 7th grade.

We, Dale Durfee and Michele Lavault, leave Mr. Chauvette and Mr. White relieved."

I, Linda Leaver, leave to Miss Scanlon all my problems.

I, Claire L'Heureux, leave my baton to anyone who can twirl it.

I, Donald Malone, leave my smelly gym locker to anyone who can stand it.

I, Glenn Martin, leave to the parking lot—rubber from my tires,

I, James McGuiness, leave Walter Arruda to the senior class.

I, Diane Medeiros, leave a volume of up-to-date jokes and a set of "laugh" cue cards to Mr. Henry.

I, Thomas Medeiros, leave Somerset High School with two words good-bye.

We, Janis Mello and Bruce Rapoza, leave as no one has left before us . . . through the ceiling of the chemistry lab!

I, Joan Mello, leave Miss Arruda a bunch of English papers.

I, Carolyn Miller, leave to Mr. Alden my English notebook.

I, Pam Miller, leave to Miss Scanlon my nickname in 309—Pamila.

I, Patricia Miller, leave Steve Preble to wander the corridors alone (?).

I, Bob Mitchell leave the Danny Kaye Show to Mrs. Strickman.

We, Cilla nad Kathy, leave the dismal, empty corridors of S.H.S. to any future senior widows.

I, Wayne Moniz leave my Batman ring to Mr. Kelly.

I, Francine Mulrooney, leave to Somerset High my silly laugh.

I, Arthur Norman, leave to the school a nest of tarantulas.

I, Linda Norris, leave to some lucky soul a few cake crumbs leftover from my birthday cake.

I, Steven O'Connell, leave to Mr. Kelly ungrateful gratitude for the marks he hasn't given me this year.

I, Vasco Pacheco, leave the door to the football supply room open.

I, Suzanne Parent, leave all the English books to any lower classman who hates to read.

I, Bruce Rapoza, leave to Mr. Mercier five dozen spit-balls.

I, Stephen Wayne Rebello, leave in Mr. Kelly's corner a pair of riding boots and a cowboy hat to use with his Mustang.

I, Steve Rebello, leave most people completely bewildered.

I, Pete Reis, leave S.H.S. for the good of the school.

I, Danny Rezendes, leave.

I, Paul Roberts, leave to Somerset High, nothing I can't carry with me.

I, Tony Rocha, leave to Coach Sullivan an empty supply room.

I, Steve Rogers, leave Mr. Kelly his Mustang hubcaps.

I, Ken Root, leave to the class of "67" one unused draft card.

I, Kathleen Rosa, bequeath to Mr. Chauvette a brilliant chemistry student to replace me.

I, Pat Rosa, leave to the Junior class all the luck in the world—they'll need it.

I, Judy St. John, leave my long hair to anyone who desires it.

I, Charlie Santerre, leave a perfect example for others to follow.

I, Linda Santoro, leave to Mr. McDonald the pleasure of calling another student Joe Don Looney and to Mr. Sullivan the pleasure of another Sam.

I, Donna Seward, leave to Miss Corcoran my moldy gym towel.

I, Gerald Shahdan, leave my old conference cards to Mr. Fingliss.

I, Jack Silvia, leave the beloved halls of Somerset High and its athletic fields to oncoming students who intend to live at school instead of home.

I, Beverly, Simmons, finally will leave with a great deal of relief.

I, Brenda Simmons, leave too.

I, Linda Smith, leave to Somerset High School the following: all the rulers, pens, and pencils that I have collected in the past four years and also all the books and bookcovers,—or what's left of them.

I, Gary Souza, leave to Mr. Leary a bottle of Fresca.

I, Eileen Squires, leave to Jim, all the girls of S.H.S. and to Mr. White a few more gray hairs than he started with.

I, Allen Thornton, leave my job as catalouger of the Library aides to whoever wants it.

I, John Thornton, leave to the next class, all of those great 30¢ cafeteria lunches.

I, Frank Tinsley, leave to Somerset good wishes to all future track coaches and a bottle of skin toughener.

I, Mary Ann Travers, leave to Mr. McDonald my younger brothers and sisters to continue where I left off.

I, Elizabeth Trudeau, leave the vicious senior atmosphere in gym when we play speedball.

I, Lawrence Veloza, leave Somerset High School peace and a certain someone in the junior class.

I, Claire Wong, leave to future underclassmen the wonderful faculty ta S.H.S.

I, John Zacamy, leave my Barry Goldwater stickers to Mrs. Strickman.

I, Frank Zawrotny, leave Mr. Chauvette in chemistry class with shattered nerves and shattered glass.

I, Mike Ziobro, leave the exclusive rights to my Ivan the Red tale to Mr. Souza, and along with Zac, Mitch, and Randy, absolve all punishment wished upon him for optioning us out to Pittsfield, late in the '65 season.

Christmas Vespers

Music Director, Mr. Stackpole

Our Christmas Vespers Program recreated the story of the Nativity in song. The musical narration was provided by the Chamber Singers of Somerset High School and was taken from "Three French Noels", by Cameron McGraw. Included in the program were the following selections:

The Quiet Carol
The Bells
Behold That Star
Watts' Nativity Carol
What Can This Mean?
Annunciation Carol
The Christ Theme
Gloria in Excelsis Deo

Somerset High School Alumni were invited to join with us as we closed our program with the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's The Messiah.

Basketball '66-'67

A well-drilled cohesive unit, the hoopsters ended this building year with a Narry League record of 7 wins and 7 losses and an overall slate of 9 wins—10 losses.

Though first place went to Holy Family and second place to Case, the Raiders finished third in the league.

The one-hundred percent efforts of senior members Captain Paul Charest, John Zacamy, and Jack Silvia improved the calibre of this youthful squad with their teamwork and sportsmanship. These players contributed to the achievement of the commendable record that this relatively inexperienced ball club scored for the season.

The Blue Raiderettes have enjoyed a successful season this year under the direction of coach Fran Corcoran and co-captains Sandy Curt and Tina Iadicola. They completed the season with a 7-2 record which left them in third place in the Bristol County Girls' League. Veteran starters Pat DeMarco and Dawn Carbonneau, guard Gail Hilliard, and a very talented newcomer, Pam Driscoll, led the team to many victories. Underclassmen Moe McDermott, Sharon Burns, and Beth Connors were also among the starters.

The Junior Varsity squad, aided by the sharpshooting of Linda Borges at Pat Cyr, took top honors in the league, compiling a 10-0 record. Adroit guards Sue Augusto and Holly Kineavy and the entire remainder of the team deserve much credit for their much appreciated and needed excellent support.

Booster Run

For the first time, since the inception of the Patron-Patroness campaign to supplement the senior treasury, three English divisions managed to achieve one hundred per cent participation. The spirited divisions achieved one hundred per cent respectively as follows: first, College V; second, College X; and third, College W.

Believe it or not, this smashing senior class topped the all time high by attaining a total of $412.00. Though the entire senior body did not solicit funds, we are thankful that those who did showed unselfish spirit.
